Harley Beard To Die; Clemency Refused; Execution Dec. 4th

Columbus, O., Oct. 28—Harley Beard, 19 year old Lawrence county boy, probably will die in the electric chair Dec. 4 for the murder of three members of the Massie family near Ironton last spring. The state board of pardons today refused to recommend pardon or commutation of sentence for him, and it was said at the governor's office that Gov. Cox would not interfere with the carrying out of the death sentence. Several alienists examined Beard and reported to the pardon board they believed he is sane.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

Washington, Oct. 28. President Wilson today issued a proclamation designating Thursday, November 26 as Thanksgiving Day.

The President's proclamation refers to the fact that the United States is at peace while the rest of the world is at war. It follows in part:

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed our day of thanksgiving has been, while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of change which have disturbed the world, also a year of special blessing for us.

"It has been vouchsafed to us to remain at peace and with honor, and in some part to succor the suffering and supply the needs of those who are in want. Our people have looked upon their own life as a nation with a deeper comprehension, a fuller realization of their responsibilities as well as of their blessings, and a keener sense of the moral and practical significance of what their part among the nations of the world may come to be.

"The hurtful effects of foreign war in their own industrial and commercial affairs have made them feel the more fully and see the more clearly their mutual interdependence upon one another and has stirred them to a helpful co-operation such as they have seldom practiced before.

"Our crops will feed all who need food; the self possession of our people amidst the most serious anxieties and difficulties and the steadiness and resourcefulness of our business men will serve other nations as well as our own.

"The business of the country has been supplied with new instrumentalities and the commerce of the world with new channels of trade and intercourse. The Panama canal has been opened to the commerce of the nations. The two continents of America have been bound in closer ties of friendship. New instrumentalities of international trade have been created which will be also new instrumentalities of acquaintance, intercourse and mutual service. Never before have the people of the United States been so situated for their own advantage or the advantage of their neighbors or so equipped to serve themselves and mankind."

GERMANS CROSS AND RE-CROSS YSER SEVEN TIMES; ALLIES HOLD IT

London, Oct. 28 (1:32 p. m.)—The "bloody massacre" as it is described by those on the spot, among the sand dunes and the canals of Flanders shows as yet but few signs of slackening. The valor of the German attack has been persistently encountered by equal valor from the steady ranks before them. Apparently no quarter is being asked or given in this battle on the western front and the land over which it is being waged resembles a shambles.

Seven times altogether, the Germans have crossed and recrossed the Yser. Each time they succeeded in gaining the left bank they found themselves in a death trap commanded by the guns of the defenders, entrenched behind the railroad embankment running more or less parallel to the Yser and completely barring their progress. Some German forces, according to the latest reports in London, succeeded in finding shelter enough among the sand hillocks to enable them to retain a footing between the Yser and the railroad running from Dixmude to Nieuport, but this number up to the present time has been insufficient to dislodge the allies.

German reinforcements are still rolling up and the efforts to break through the line show no sign of cessation. Nor is it expected that they will until the exhausted masses of men reach the limit of their endurance.

French Claim Progress

It is impossible for observers in London to deduct from the German official communication the German opinion of events in this arena of the war. From the point of view of the allies the French announcements of continued progress between Ypres and Dixmude are considered very satisfactory as foreshadowing a possible threatening of the rear of the German forces nearest the coast.

Another piece of favorable news, still from the standpoint of the allies, comes from the Argonne and the region of the Barrier fortresses. This reports French penetration of territory hitherto held by the invaders and is taken to indicate that the possibility that the German left has been weakened by pushing forces to support the operations on the coast that the French right wing has afforded an opening for a profitable offensive movement which may have an echo on the seaboard.

Both Armies Reinforcing

If the Germans are sending fresh masses of men to the fighting zone the allies probably are equalling their opponents numerically with reinforcements. There are still many thousands of French and British troops who have not yet been in action, although the latter are on this side of the channel.

The Belgian government has been stirred to greater activity by the comment that there are large numbers of young and physically able Belgians enjoying life in England when their proper place, it is contended, is in the ranks of their own army. A call now has been issued by the Belgian government, summoning all efficients between the ages of 18 and 30 to enlist for the duration of the war and announcing that after November 15 all Belgians are to be automatically enrolled.

Revoke Search Order

Simultaneously it is declared here, the British government has repented for its recent action forbidding the capture of German vessels of the enemy on neutral vessels and has withdrawn this order. The public welcomes this change of front as it is opposed to giving facilities to the fleet of German and Austrian reservists to join their colors and thus neutralize the French troops the allies are able to send into the field.

MRS. CARMAN LEAVES FOR THE FARM

Freeport, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Mrs. Florence Carman, who on Monday was released on $25,000 bail, following the disagreement of the jury at her trial for the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, today left her home for her husband's farm at Raven Rock, N. J. Dr. Carman and her daughter, Elizabeth, accompanied her.

Since Mrs. Carman returned home from jail she has been showered with gifts of flowers. Every room in the house was banked with flowers today. Her attorney said today that it had not been decided as yet whether a second trial would be demanded for his client.

Among the injured police are Captain Robert Emmett and three policemen all of whom were seriously hurt.

No use talking! It's us fellows who stand first, last and always for the people who do things with their hands. For instance there's me and my weather. If I do say it myself there ain't a finer brand of weather horse than that we're raising right low in Portsmouth. And it ain't no trust weather either. No since it ain't. My weather is produced right here at home in an independent factory and is strictly made from start to finish. Here's the output for tomorrow:

THE MARKETS

Chicago, Oct. 28. Crop damage reports from Argentina with predictions of a smaller yield there per acre, tended today to bring about an advance in the price of wheat. Besides, cables were at hand confirming a most unfavorable outlook for Australia. There were signs that foreigners were actively taking cash wheat in the market here. After opening 1-5/8 off to 1-1/4, prices made a substantial gain all around.

Corn rose with wheat. Pit of farmers were not heavy and there was a fair demand. The opening which ranged from a shade decline to 1-1/4 to 3-8 advances was followed by a moderate general gain.

Indications of a freely demand from the seaboard put strength into oats. There was much early buying by shorts.

Higher prices for hogs carried provisions up. Selling was only of a scattered sort.

Later a decided reaction took place, influenced to some extent by big receipts of what at primary points. The close was weak at 1-1/2 to 1-3/4 net decline.

Smallness of country offerings helped to sustain the corn market. The close, however, was easy at the same as last night to be advanced.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Miss Dolly Wise.—Please, please, fish as soon as possible to let the boy that left his knife on my walk know that he will find it where he left the note.

From one who wishes all boys well.

Don't get your knife, Willie, and be more careful the next time you are delivering a note. Was it a blank note?

Dear Dolly.—Is a man of 22 and a girl of 18, not children to "kiss the bucket"?

As "kissing the bucket" is a slang expression for dying, I think you did mixed up a bit, Bill. They are rather young to marry if that's what you mean.

Dear Miss Wise.—As it is necessary for a boy to tip his hat to every girl he sees and knows:

A boy should tip his hat to every girl he sees and knows, if she is in the company of a man or boy he knows. Remember that the next time I meet you, Sammy.

Dear Miss Wise.—Could you tell me where I could get the song "There's a Girl in the Heart of Maryland," also "I'm On My Way to Memphis"?

I wouldn't want sheet music, I would like to get a book with the best songs, also where could I get a book in Portsmouth?

Dear Miss Wise.—If you could get the song as if the local music store can't get it, can you tell me where to get it in the city, and it would be a good idea to improve my singing voice.

Dear Miss Wise.—Would it be all right for a boy to take a girl home from an evening entertainment?

If a girl has no companion and must go home alone, unless you accompany her, it would be a gentlemanly thing to offer to see her home. But no girl should go to any evening entertainment without making provision beforehand for getting safely home.

Dear Dolly.—Do you think a girl likes you if she refuses to dance with you?

Not usually, though there might be other reasons for the refusal. If you can't dance very well, I don't blame her for refusing to dance with you, Johnny.

Dear Miss Wise.—Is it all right to stay with your lady friend till Monday when you go to see her on Sunday?

If you mean to stay until after 12 o'clock, emphatically no. Thirty is the latest, any self-respecting girl should entertain gentlemen callers, unless there is a party of young people together, and then they should go home by eleven at the latest.

Dear Dolly Wise.—While listening to the new rhymes of "Holly" in the Reformer church Sunday morning, I composed this poem. Will you please tell me what you think of it?

The New Chiming Bells
Loud and clear on the morning air,
New chiming bells for the hour of prayer,
Beautiful bells, chiming the hymns of devotion,
Beautiful bells chiming the hymns of devotion.

Beautiful bells stirring thoughts for holy meditation,
Beautiful bells inspiring renewed devotion.

consecration.
Beautiful bells for the hour of devotion.
Drawing the soul closer to the Lord of Creation.

A READER.
I think you are a poet, but you don't know it, dear reader.

Dear Dolly.—Kindly tell me what would be good for a moldy collar?

A pan of quicklime left standing to air slack will purify the air. The sides should be whitewashed and the air let in every day.

Dear Dolly.—Please suggest an appropriate suit for a girl of 14 and what color should it be?

Any color that is becoming can be worn. The blouse waist and long tunic over plain skirt would be very pretty for a girl of that age.

Dear Dolly.—Will you please tell me something to do for my hair? It is short and stubby, splitting at the ends and rough as a chestnut burr, and all falling out so I can keep hair pins in place. Also tell me if it is right to call up boys? Tell me something to make the eyes brown and the lashes grow real fast. Where can I take a secret service course at the least expense through a correspondent school, and do you have to be a certain age?

MISS R. C.
If you will rub a little vaseline into the scalp at night it will make the hair grow, but it is, of course, I know of nothing that will make it grow. If it is splitting either singe off the ends or cut them off about one inch. If you have something really important to say to a boy, you might call him up, but don't call him just to talk foolishly for a while. His time is valuable and you might cause him to lose his job. I do not know of anything that will make the eyes brown.

Better not monkey with them or you might go blind. For information concerning civil service, apply or call the office of the Bureau of Civil Service, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C. Correspondence School in the new building. Will answer your other question by mail.

HUGE EXPORT ORDERS MEAN PROSPERITY TO COUNTRY

The Cincinnati Enquirer today carried the following special dispatch from New York, presaging prosperity for the entire United States:

"That well-known veil of secrecy now being lifted is revealing that the war orders which have been coming into this country are reaching stupendous figures. There has been an increase of exports, to be sure, but before long the figures will show a movement in American made goods which will be startling.

It is estimated by one well-known financial authority, on the basis of accounts with foreign agents in several of the large banks, that orders have been given for American goods within the last month which amount to at least $200,000,000. It has in the last week or so been nothing unusual with banks having large foreign connections to pay out $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 a day on behalf of various hustling commissions.

Figures given out today at the Custom House revealed that exports from New York last week represented $21,397,327, the greatest value for any week since Mar. 21, and nearly 20 per cent in excess of shipments a year ago. Only four times this year have exports added more to the commercial credits of the country than last week. As yesterday's exports reached the new high record figure of $6,183,812, the final week of the month promises to establish another record. One reason for the big shipment was that more ships were to be had than previously.

A purchasing agent who came here from Canada today closed contracts for 2,000,000 1908 Winchester rifles and 2,000,000 brown blankets, to be shipped from here to Canada, thence to England. The revised policy of the British Government regarding shipments of cotton to Europe is expected to bring about a great stimulus in exports to Germany and Italy.

One of the best indications of the improving situation is the German demand for cotton. It was reported today that several hundred thousand bales had been purchased for that country in the United States. At $35 a bale the cost will approximate $7,000,000. In substantiation of these reports a Galveston dispatch said the German Steamer Rhinefelle will sail from there for Bremen next month with 10,000 bales. Nearly 10,000 bales were exported today from Savannah for Copenhagen.

Police Interfere With Man Who Wanted To Suicide

W. H. Morefield, a molder employed at the Portsmouth Store & Range Co.'s plant, was taken into custody by the police Wednesday afternoon for alleged making repeated threats to commit suicide.

Morefield, who appeared to have been on a spree, purchased two different bottles of carbolic acid at an uptown drug store under the pretense of using the poison for killing bed bugs at his home on Tenth street, between Washington and Chillicothe streets. The first bottle was wrested from him by a Chillicothe street saloonkeeper when Morefield declared his intention of killing himself. He straightway returned to the drug store and declaring the first bottle had not been sufficient bought another quantity of the acid. Officer Tom Abrecht learning of the man's threats searched him and found the bottle concealed in his underclothing. He released him with a warning. Meeting Officer Joe Bonzo the molder told him he was going to throw himself under the wheels of a street car. Bonzo placed him under arrest.

Morefield when questioned at headquarters denied he had any intention of making way with himself, saying he had meant it all as a joke. He claimed his wife had sent him after the acid but this was soon disproven. He was finally released with orders to return home at once and remain there for the balance of the day or be locked up.

JOHN W. HALL, Republican Candidate for Clerk of Courts

For Clerk of Courts it should be a pleasure to vote for genial, whole-souled John W. Hall, the Republican nominee.

He attended the Ohio State University, where he did not only work in the U. S. and E. railway offices and the U. S. pension office at Columbus.

For twenty-eight years Mr. Hall has resided in Scioto county, engaged in farming, except a period as superintendent of the county infirmary where he made an enviable record for economy and efficiency.

EDISON PLAYS BOY AT THE KEY AGAIN

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 28.—It developed today that Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, who has been visiting scenes of his boyhood in this section of the state for the last week, cast off the mantle of his years yesterday and on a trip to Port Huron once more tried his hand at the operator's key and even went so far as to take the wires from a news stand here and sell them among his friends.

As the inventor passed through Mount Clemens, he stepped into the telephone operator's office and tapped off a message to his children in New Jersey. The message was interrupted however, the

Mr. Edison with a smile and said: "An operator on the line is complaining. He says there is a boy on the wire whose practicing is gumming things up."

At Port Huron, Mr. Edison insisted on equipping his guest with all the necessary equipment of a new listener.

Mr. Edison appeared to take keen delight in the situation and he was soon selling fruit and candies to his friends. Chewing gum brought as high as 50 cents a package and when the inventor stepped off the train, he poured the proceeds of his day's business into the hat of a grinning porter.

conducted the funeral services over the body of Earl Moore, three-year-old son of John Moore, who died Tuesday afternoon from the effects of terrible burns received Tuesday at noon, at the Moore home on Mill street. The funeral was largely attended. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery.

Amos Jenkins

Amos Jenkins was born March 4, 1845, in Madison township, Scioto county; died Monday, October 26, 1914. The last summons came to him peacefully at ten o'clock Monday morning with his family at the bedside.

He was a son of Richard and Barry Jenkins. His father died twenty years ago and his mother passed away six years later, both dying at their home in Jackson county. His father was near the century mark in age when death overtook him.

Mr. Jenkins spent the early part of his life on the farm near Rarden. For over twenty-two years he was engaged in the lumber business in Rarden and at the time of death owned an interest in a saw mill back of Sciotoville. He started in this business at an early age and always gave it his earnest attention.

On October 8, 1879, he married Miss Ella Windel at Rarden. Fourteen years ago he moved his family to New Boston. For a little more than a year he has conducted a small grocery on Rhodes avenue, New Boston.

The deceased was well liked by all who knew him and he had a host of friends, winning them by his kindness and friendly actions. He never became affiliated with any church or lodge, but gave two lots at Rarden on which the Methodist Episcopal church is erected.

Mr. Jenkins had been confined to his home for some time, suffering from a complication of diseases. All hopes of his recovery had been given up several days before he was gathered by the Grim Reaper.

The deceased was the father of nine children, Alva of Cincinnati, Ky.; Ezra, Carey, Louise, Mollie, Clara and Josephine. One son, Clarence, died 17 years ago and an infant son who died at Rarden.

Besides his wife and children he leaves the following sisters and brothers: John Jenkins, Scioto county; Harry Jenkins, West Jefferson, Ohio; Alexander Jenkins, Fostoria, Ohio; George Jenkins, near Kansas City, Kan.; and James Jenkins, of Jackson county; Mrs. Betty Carr, Jackson county; Mrs. Hester Jenkins, near Creek; Mrs. Julia Lamb, West Jefferson, Ohio; Mrs. Drusie Yungster of near Plain City, Ohio. His one grandchild, Juanita Jenkins, was the pride of his home. His bereaved wife never knew a moment of sorrow during her life with the deceased. The funeral was held at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Rev. T. H. McAfee was in charge of the last rites. The remains were taken to Wheel-rings for interment.

Thomas A. Edison

New York Submarine and electrical experts of the U. S. Navy who have inspected a special storage battery on which Thomas A. Edison has been working for the last two years, pronounced it a marvelous improvement over the old lead ones now in use in submarines. The present batteries generate chlorine gas, which weakens the lungs of the crew.

THE FINEST EVER.

The road across the Scioto bottom, which notwithstanding its entire modernity, continues to be called the towpath, and, probably, for all ages will be known by that name, is near an early completion.

It in all respects will be accepted as the finest piece of highway in the state. Sustained on either side by massive stone walls four and a half feet wide at the base and two at the top, it will be guarded by galvanized rails and have a concrete walk for pedestrians along its entire length. This will be a much greater accommodation than ordinarily furnished, because between two and three hundred persons, who live around Union Mills, but are employed in Portsmouth, will go back and forth on it every day, the majority of them afoot. The vehicle roadway will be topped off with broken stone and limestone and the state will join with the county in paving it.

Added to the paving to be done on the west river pike, to be done next year, there will be over three miles of beautiful roadway, which, no doubt, will vie with the Chillicothe pike in popularity with Sunday strollers.

PAID IN FULL.

Of all the criticisms hurled at Governor Cox none have so far been so reckless as to claim he did not keep his promises to the voters.

He has redeemed all his pledges in full and that alone furnishes ample and sufficient reason why he should be re-elected. He has established a standard; and we will not say that. He has restored a standard of public honor. He has brought back to us in all its splendid courage and honesty the old time robust citizenship that held a promise to the people collectively just as binding as a contract between man and man. In his candidacy the voters were told just what they might expect if he were elected and being elected he gave them that.

About his success or defeat hangs much of the future in state government. If the voters say they do not approve of his straightforwardness as a candidate and his honor as an official, they can not expect to find these qualities in other officials of the days to come. Right now the opposition to him isn't promising anything, as a matter of fact. It is trying to distract and befuddle the voters by a monstrous amount of noise and furious fault-finding, but it doesn't say in what respect it is going to make or better. There is native in this and it's for the people to beware.

AN OLD, OLD STORY.

In 1900 there was a fellow by the name of Jenks who used to be general manager or superintendent of the plant now known as the Portsmouth steel mills. In the campaign of that year, at the mills, on the street, in building house and where else, he could get an auditor, he offered the dire threat, that if Bryan were elected president, the mills would shut down the next day. We really believe he found some dupes, poor, ignorant people who actually believed him.

Well, anyway, it didn't happen that Bryan was elected, but something else did. On the Monday previous to the election, the mills shut down to give every man a chance to go to the polls the next day and vote to save his job by electing McKinley. The fires in the old furnaces were never again started, so instead of saving their jobs, the deluded fellows had lost just one day's work because Bryan was defeated, as you understand, the mills were not to close down until the day after his election.

Some years afterwards the mills, which had been sold to the steel trust and which this fellow Jenks knew was to be kept running until election and then closed down for good, were bought by an independent company, completely renovated and again placed in operation.

Today rumor comes to our ears that some other fellow, a whungadiddle around that they will close down if Ohio goes Democratic next Tuesday. Who is responsible for putting this rumor about us, we do not know. We only hope it found its origin in the fertile fancies of some fool partisan, not only, no voter, exercising common sense will give it belief.

A SAFE GUESS.

The candidate who keeps after election the promises, he makes before election is the safe one to tie to.

Opponents who only accuse him of keeping his promises, speak their own lack of dependability, for as it is reasonable that a candidate will promise for election only that which is right, so it is evident that the one who complains of his keeping, can not himself be depended upon. He professes his own standard that public pledges are not to be relied on, are not made to be kept and thus confesses his self unworthiness.

Therefore when his enemies complain of Jim Cox that he kept faith with the people do they state themselves unsafe to be trusted by the people?

Chairman Newton M. Miller, of the Republican State committee, as manager of the Ohio Traction Co., sees great business prospects if the election of Cox is made, because that insurance, the State Highway Department, will be out of the way and "relief" will come to the road machinery salesmen.

SOME ANCIENT HISTORY.

The records show that when Frank B. Willis was a member of the legislature he played his little part in smothering an investigation of the state offices of treasurer and auditor and joined in a white-wash of them in which it was cowardly reported that all was well therein.

Humors of graft and grafting would not down, however, and the cover came near being blown off, tight as Republican legislators, and officials were sitting on it, when Pattison was elected governor. To their great relief that good man died before he could take up the reins. Then came the shrewd and masterful Uncle Jim Harmon, who dropped a bomb from his high old-fashioned Zeppelin of integrity and blew the fortress of the allied grafters, bosses and legislators all to flinders.

He began bringing the scoundrels to law with unflinching sternness. Many received a pressing invitation to the penitentiary, some escaped through technicality of the law and can now be found at the Willis headquarters—"just hangers on." Chairman Jones explains, but they evidently know where they are welcome—and others died before full reckoning could be had with them. Tens of thousands of dollars they had filched from the state were disgorged by them and so vigorously and effectively has the good work been kept up by the Cox administration that hundreds of thousands have been recovered by the state.

Nobody charges Frank B. Willis had actual part in the rifling and pillaging of the treasury, but it is submitted that a member of the legislature, who didn't know what was going on at the time and was such a weakling that he could be used as a shield by the grafters, is entirely to innocent to be governor.

A DISHONEST PROPOSAL.

All of us want taxes kept down to the lowest possible notch; anything that even squints in the direction of their reduction receives instant favor.

It is a case of playing upon this inclination when certain interests have offered an amendment to the constitution to limit taxation to one per cent. Nakedly nine-tenths and more of the voters favor that limitation, but there is "a nigger in the wood pile." He appears in the shape of a condition, attached to the one per cent limitation, which is briefly that property may be classified for purposes of taxation. Now, if the fellows who had the one per cent limit submitted wanted that first and foremost and it was absolutely certain it would carry by itself, why did they tie a tail to it in the way of property classification?

Most assuredly because they have some purpose to serve that does not appear in the amendment as submitted. Being dishonest then in the proposal they offer it can not be they have an honest purpose to serve. Classification of property for taxation is not fair in itself. If I and my kind control the legislature, we can say, and there would be specious ground for it too: Our automobiles might not be taxed, for do we not pay a license to run them when no other vehicle has this unjust imposition put upon it. More than that, the automobile wears out in three or four years, and we buy a new one, thus keeping industries running and giving employment to tens of thousands. Let's put the tax on farm wagons and classify automobiles on the free list.

But the farmer and his friends get in control and they say: Let's put the tax on the town fellows. Their automobiles tear up our roads and they can rent their houses for big money, while we have to work hard to get anything out of our lands. Yes, we'll put a double tax on automobiles and put our machinery and wagons on the free list, assess town property at its full value and our own at one-third, because all wealth really comes from the land, you know, and wealth and not land should bear the burden of taxation.

These are extreme cases, we'll admit, but nothing beyond what is likely to occur in violent popular convulsions. The one line, capable fact is that for the greater part of the time, the powerful monetary interests, being always on the job, will have property so classified most of the time, that the burden of taxation will be so disposed that those least able will carry most of it.

THE MAIN POINT.

There have been rather acrid personalities at times injected into the present campaign, at a point or two the Republican candidate for governor has been brought to a pointed issue, but after all is said and done, it strikes us the only real, the only vital question, the matter that determines whether or not a popular form of government is a success was brought in quite recently by Governor Cox.

Speaking in-state he said substantially, this is the suggestion I want to present to you. As a candidate for governor my party put forth a certain platform, a program of legislation and administration it proposed to have carried out, if entrusted with the necessary equipment of governor and legislature. I accepted the platform in full, I promised to stand by it if elected. In addition to this I made pledges as a candidate and received from the people their mandates through a new constitution adopted. Now, not even my most reckless opponent dares to charge I did not carry out the promises of the platform, keep my pledges, and obey the public will as expressed by the constitution. On the contrary, they quarrel with me, in effect, that I am no wise broke faith with the voters. I submit it is better to trust the candidate who has and means to keep faith with the voters than to side with him who repudiates for keeping that faith.

There, we assert is the whole pit and moment of the present contest as well as that of every other election. It used to be all too truthfully said, that party platforms were written to get in office, not afterwards to be kept; that candidates' promises were made to catch votes and then to be forgot. But that day is passed. We are entered upon a new era, when both parties and candidates must stand by their pledges, or else soon feel the heavy hand of repudiation. The people know Jim Cox has kept true and stand fast to all that was promised in his candidacy, they know opposition campaigns of what he has done, but it will not dare assert it will undo a word of anything affirmative. His campaign is merely a white and a straddle.

The voters know whom to trust and trusting they must support, or else be false to themselves and their own welfare.

State Auditor A. V. Dunphy with one statement has wiped out completely the card-sharp figures prepared by the State House committee to bolster up the charge that the State Highway Department was costing too much. And what's more, Mr. Willis will not attempt to deny the auditor's statistics.

Former State Chairman George P. Jakes, for ten years a real estate dealer in Columbus, standing bossman out in Republican campaign literature, has a leading druggist. George wants the druggists to use in insurance, because the General Assembly passed a law requiring purity in prescriptions. It's one of the farm reform measures.

Merely as a matter of information it is stated that a veteran lobbyist whom Governor Cox forced to register as such under the first law passed during his administration, is now preparing the anti-tax and anti-road roads material at Republican State headquarters.

One week more and the agony will be over.

ISSUE IS HARDING VS. WILSON, DECLARES HOGAN

The speech of Warren G. Harding, the Republican candidate for United States Senator, here last week, was replied to by his Democratic opponent, Attorney-General T. S. Hogan, at Cleveland Monday night.

Gen. Hogan, among other things, said: "Mr. Harding, in his speech at Portsmouth, said he was in favor of the old Payne-Aldrich tariff. My distinguished opponent is pretty much alone in advocating a return to the Payne-Aldrich-Cannon-Pendleton and Watson regime. The followers of Theodore Roosevelt in the 1912 campaign will not forget what Jim Watson did to their idol at the Chicago convention."

"Mr. Harding says, too, that competition will take care of monopoly. I submit to the voters of this state that Mr. Harding's statement is squarely in the teeth of the facts. Former President Taft, Mr.

Harding's idol, recently referred to the Clayton anti-trust bill of the Wilson administration as one of the notable pieces of legislation under President Wilson.

"I do not understand how Mr. Harding can make the claim to an audience of Ohio voters that competition in this country will take care of monopoly, with a tariff wall surrounding our country, in the light of our actual experience."

"The issue in this campaign is Harding vs. Wilson. Mr. Harding himself made this issue and started out to convince the people that he knew more about the kind of legislation and the character of administration that the welfare of this country demanded than President Wilson. It is only too apparent that he has utterly failed in his assault."

"A vote for Mr. Harding is a vote of rebuke to the Wilson administration, both foreign and domestic."

THE LONG WAY 'ROUND.

Candidate Willis still insists he is for the wiping of the highway department.

If he wasn't such a constitutional and habitual straddler, he would come square out and say what he means—that he means he stands for the old system of excessive road building by county commissioners. Every county in the state knows just what this stands for, roads ever getting worse and fat times for road machinery men; knows that it means the return of the county boss and the horde of contractors and idlers, the township road bossdom—the thing Willis most longs for.

Willis knows all this too and yet no one throws as many spasms daily over the bossdom of Governor Cox as does he.

By the way, how much war tax do you pay anyway, and do you prefer war and the slaughter of your sons to paying a little bit of tax that individually does not amount to anything.

How unfortunate that Insurance Agent Ferris should say that "a Republican Governor will give us relief" when he appealed for votes to hastening the workmen's compensation act.

Bryan says that he is sticking to Cox because Cox stuck to him when it was unpopular to be for that great leader.

Nobody has heard the foxy Warren G. Harding declaring that he is for prohibition. He's letting Frank do it.

The Supreme Court of Ohio has lately said that former State Treasurer Isaac B. Cameron is an embezzler. Cameron's cashier, who mutilated the records to baffle the state bank examiner, is employed at Republican state headquarters.

If the vote is as heavy as the outcry the count will be long delayed.

KAISER'S RAID ALONG COAST CHECKED; TOWN IS TAKEN BY BRITISH

London, Oct. 28 (3.55 a. m.)—The correspondent of the Times in northern France send the following regarding the fighting in Belgium under Tuesday's date:

"The British fire at Ypres, after a glorious stand for five days, against overwhelming odds, drove the enemy back 15 miles. The German forces were commanded by the Bavarian Crown Prince, who, it is reported, has been wounded."

"The British forces captured Langemark, five miles north-east of Ypres, on Friday after inflicting enormous losses on the enemy and established entrenched positions beyond the village."

"At night after the rain fell a small waste and bushes, which had been shot and badly hurt by fire, were seen to be moving forward, but it proved unavailing."

Cooper injured a foot and wounded his shoulder and was surrounded and fell across the B. & O. S. W. railroad tracks on Fourth street. He was taken to the hospital and is now recovering from his wounds.

Dr. Flower Seized In Old $1,000,000 Fraud

DR. E. C. FLOWER

New York, Oct. 23. Officials high in the service of the police department here, were not surprised to hear of the arrest of Dr. E. C. Flower, alias Oxford, alias Montgomery, who has been taken into custody at Toronto after a chase which has extended over the whole North American continent and part of South America. In 1901 Flower was president of the Arizona Mining Company and Lone Pine Company, with offices in New York. After the district attorney had investigated the status of the companies, Flower was indicted for grand larceny of $1,000,000. At this time the husband of Mrs. Theodore Hangerman died. She had invested $250,000 in Flower's companies and it was alleged that Flower was responsible for the death of Hangerman. When the body was exhumed it was charged of this charge and released on $100,000 bail, which he jumped.

COOPER NOT ASSAULTED

A rumor was current Wednesday that Officer Frank Cooper had been shot and badly hurt by Fred Nelson when the latter resisted arrest but it proved unfounded.

MASONIC BOWLING LEAGUE

TO MEET FRIDAY EVENING

Steps will be taken at the Play House on Friday evening to organize the 1914-15 Masonic Bowling League, which had such a prosperous run last year and which promises to be bigger and better this season.

A preliminary meeting was held at the Play House, Friday evening, which was presided over by President William Zoltman. It is hoped to form a league of six clubs this year, in order to give all Masons who so desire a chance to affiliate with the league. Last season upwards of thirty men took part in the league, while it was enough to form six clubs. Those who desire to enter the league this year, will please be present at the Play House Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp. The officers have been engaged for the evening and after the business has been disposed of, those present will choose up and have a hot, the novel on the newly played alley.

The Federal league will not get the services of Hank Gowdy. The world's series hero has signed a contract for three years with the Boston Braves. The Reds offered Gowdy a $10,000 bonus if he signed.

BOSTON TEAM COST LESS THAN $75,000

It cost Jim Gaffney less than $75,000 to assemble his ball team.

He could not afford $240,000 for the outfit if he priced it on the market today. And, instead of that $240,000 is a team of $75,000 that he paid 17 young players, and that he will be able to get for his other twenty-four players for a total of $250,000.

The Bill James, the star catcher of the Braves, went to the Braves from the Seattle. The most owner, Jim, a few months ago, if Gaffney wanted to buy him, he would have paid $100,000. The selling price of $25,000 is a bargain. The Braves' manager, Gaffney, would not get for him, but he got for him $25,000.

WILL PLAY IN MILLBROOK PARK

Portsmouth's highest football team will meet the Ironton at Millbrook park, next Sunday afternoon. The two teams already played by these two teams, Ironton has come out the winner but the Bulldogs have been strengthened considerably and are sanguine of a victory Sunday. The fifth and last game will be played in the city to be chosen by the flip of a coin.

No Place To Work

The Giants and Bulldogs, Portsmouth's highest football teams, are up against it in securing a place to practice. The players only chance to practice is at the Ironton, and the only two places open are at the Ironton and at the Ironton. The Ironton, from the best team in Ironton, will play to see that the Tigers' record is a string of defeats.

HUGHITT IS READY

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 28.—For the first time since his arm was dislocated in the game with the Michigan Agricultural college eleven, 10 days ago, "Tommy" Hughitt, the University of Michigan's quarterback, appeared on the field in football boots this afternoon. Hughitt, lauded the ball for a short time and then declared he would be ready to start in the game against the Ironton at Cambridge next Saturday. The return of Hughitt will greatly strengthen the Bulldogs, but two or three other varsity players are still out because of injuries and probably will not be in shape to face the Ironton.

Smith Is Has Been

The novel idea has happened. The Ironton, from the best team in Ironton, will play to see that the Tigers' record is a string of defeats.

BACKFIELD IN SHAPE

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 28.—The Ironton's backfield, with the exception of captain Buckley, who is recuperating after an operation for appendicitis, got together in practice today for the first time in many weeks to tune up for the Michigan game next Saturday. ## BIGGER GAME IS COMING

Such a defeat as Yale sustained from W. & J. Saturday under the conditions means a lot more joy to the victor than gloom to the defeated team. It is unfortunate, of course, that Yale wasn't able to win, but the Bulldogs could not afford to sacrifice everything to win from W. & J. In spite of the Bulldogs' coming, no doubt the Yale boys were greatly pained to have the W. & J. game the result would have been different. No championship was involved.

Next Game In Gallipolis

All negotiations for a game next Saturday between P. H. S. and Ironton H. S. have been stopped until November 1, when they play at Millbrook park. The Ironton, from the best team in Ironton, will play to see that the Tigers' record is a string of defeats.

GEO. M. ROUKE SPEAKS
AT THE BIG DRY TENT

Illness prevented the appearance at the big dry tent Tuesday evening of Judge W. A. Covington of Georgia, the committee receiving word late Tuesday afternoon that he would be unable to come. George M. Rouke, of Springfield, Ohio, was substituted at the last moment, and he spoke for over an hour on the evils of the liquor traffic.

Cold weather kept the attendance down, and the meeting was one of the most poorly attended of the campaign. Four slaves were kept burning throughout the evening, which kept the tent fairly comfortable.

Mr. Rouke was introduced to the audience by Chairman W. D. Gilliland, who made his usual announcement of the meetings for the remainder of the campaign.

At the outset, Mr. Rouke emphasized the importance of the present campaign, and spoke of the responsibility that devolved on every voter. He said it was even greater than the responsibility of the engineer at the throttle or the pilot of a great ocean steamer, since it concerned not only the lives of the present generation, but of generations yet to come.

He asserted that any business that debauched the manhood and womanhood of this state was accursed of God, and that any one who voted for its continuance was an enemy of God and the Christian religion.

He referred to an alleged statement sent out by the brewers which stated that one saloon keeper was worth twenty ministers, or school teachers, or church members. The speaker congratulated the latter in the fact that they had never aided in the life of an institution which preyed upon the health and morals of the community.

Mr. Rouke devoted considerable time to a denunciation of a "pretended minister" from the state of Kansas, who he said was touring Ohio in the interest of the wet cause. He was making extravagant statements about prohibition in Kansas, claiming that it did not prohibit, and that it was opposed by the better class of people in the state, according to the speaker.

In denial of his claims, Mr. Rouke referred to an issue of an

OUCH! LUMBAGO!
RUB PAINS FROM
SORE, LAME BACK

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now listen! That's lumbago, sciatica, or may be from a strain, and you'll get relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on your back and out comes the pain. It is harmless and doesn't burn the skin.

Lumber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and after using it just once you'll forget that you ever had lumbago, sciatica or anything else that would keep you from your back any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 40 years.

Negro Speaks
In North End

Rev. C. S. Williams, a colored minister from Cincinnati, well known in this city, was the principal speaker at the North End tent Tuesday evening. Special music was rendered by a colored quartet.

The West End tent was moved Tuesday to Easttown, and pitched at the corner of Ninth street and Randall avenue. Rev. John W. Dunning opened the meetings there Tuesday evening, with a splendid address before a fair audience.

IF KIDNEYS ACT
BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is a sign you have been eating too much meat, which forms uric acid.

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the loins, suggest it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid, which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and boggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, by moving all the uric acid out of the system. Also you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach seems tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, clumps when you pour, water seals and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Epsom salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then get busy. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder troubles.

Epsom salts is a life saver for regular constipation. It is inexpensive, cannot hurt and makes a delightful, refreshing lithia water drink.

MRS. SMITH WEDS TITANIC SURVIVOR

Huntington, Oct. 28.—Mrs. Mary Elsie Hughes-Smith, widow of Lucien P. Smith, who went down with the Titanic, and Robt. William Daniel, a Philadelphia banker, like Mrs. Smith a survivor of the Titanic, were married in New York City on August 18, the ceremony being performed in the Little Church Around the Corner.

News of this romantic marriage was kept from the public until last night, when Mrs. Daniel telephoned from Philadelphia making known the secret. Rumors of the engagement of the beautiful widow, who is the daughter of Congressman and Mrs. James A.

Hughes of Westmoreland, and the Philadelphia financier, have been rife for many weeks, but the story was always denied and the public had not the slightest inkling of the fact that the wedding had already taken place.

The tragic termination of the earlier marriage of the bride, the circumstances of her meeting with Mr. Daniel, which occurred while the two were refugees aboard the Carpathia, and the unusual facts which caused their wedding to be kept secret combine to make their story one of surpassing interest, a story, in fact, so romantic and so unusual as to rival the strongest fiction.

"Gold Mine" At Ironton Burned

Ironton, Oct. 28.—Fire, of unknown origin, which broke out early Wednesday morning in the rear of the Gold Mine store, owned by Smith Bros. and L. Covert, located at the corner of Third street and Park avenue, caused a property damage that will be very heavy and brought one of the largest crowds that ever gathered to witness a fire, within such a remarkably short time. The damage, it is stated, will run into the thousands, as the building was badly damaged by fire and the stock of goods, consisting of furniture and household goods of all sorts, was badly damaged by fire, smoke and water.

The fire was first discovered by Woods Marion, chauffeur, who with his wife, rooms in the flats above the store. He at once spread the alarm and the fire departments were soon on the scene and within a very brief time the flames were under control, due to the splendid work of all of the firemen but more especially to the new auto engine. The stream thrown by the engine was heavy and projected with such force that the strongest blaze could endure but a short time and the fire was speedily extinguished, requiring a little more than a half hour's time.

The flats above the Gold Mine are occupied by Lex Foster, an employee of the D. T. & L. Railway company, and he suffered some damage to household goods. It is understood that the loss is covered by insurance.

The fire, it is said, started in the rear of the building and had gained considerable headway before it was noticed.

Pleasant Green Is Prospering Under Rev. W. P. Chapman

With the coming of Rev. W. P. Chapman to the Pleasant Green Baptist church there has been a change in the church's affairs. Rev. Chapman came here from Cincinnati, the first of June, to take over the local pastorate and since there have been a number of departures, all for the betterment of the church and its congregation.

Improvements amounting to $400 have been made to the interior and exterior of the building. There was not a dollar in the treasury when Rev. Chapman took charge. Since then he has raised $700 and the funds are in fine shape. While there is some indebtedness, it is in a shape where debts can be met. There have been ten additions to the church and four baptisms; street assessment of $75 has been paid; cement walks have been laid around the church and all the foregoing improvements have been accomplished by Rev. Chapman.

The building has been covered with white stucco which gives it a very pretty appearance. The front end of the church is practically new, two windows and a large door being opened up. The interior has been repapered and repainted. New carpet is on the floor. The floor has been raised and strengthened and the rostrum has been raised and repaired. These repairs were begun Sept. 1st, the church having been practically remodelled. A frame addition erected in 1898 was torn down in 1912 after being condemned. A small brick addition was begun in the fall of 1912 but it was demolished several months ago on account of a defective foundation. More room is needed but the money is not forthcoming. The church was left in a bad shape by the flood.

The present structure was built in 1865 by Butler Harper, an uncle of the present pastor's wife. Mrs. Chapman is a daughter of Frank Washington, who was a deacon for 30 years. The corner stone laid in 1865 was found when the frame addition was destroyed. The iron box containing the records was intact. A new box was secured in which the old box and all new records were placed and put in the corner-stone which has been placed in the front door steps.

The piano and organ destroyed in the high water have been replaced with new instruments. Rev. Addison Haley of Union street is the only charter member of the church living. Sixteen members of his family belong to the church. A. Carr, one of the first members, is still a member in the church work and is janitor

HOW TO CURE RECEDING GUMS

A general census is all the large cities of the country shows one in every five adults to suffer from bad teeth. Decay is one of the main troubles when the enamel of the teeth becomes yellow and black, and the gums begin to recede from their accustomed places, decay and then come loose teeth, bleeding, abscessed teeth and the attendant pain of all of the mouth. You can cure receding gum teeth by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are the only pills that will cure receding gums. They are the only pills that will cure receding gums. They are the only pills that will cure receding gums.

Teeth extraction is always to be avoided. When you pull one tooth it gives the others more opportunity to become loose in their sockets. If you are not careful you must soon pull out all your teeth, and those that remain are sure to decay as well as move. They never look like your own teeth and everyone knows that.

You can readily overcome these troubles by using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are the only pills that will cure receding gums. They are the only pills that will cure receding gums. They are the only pills that will cure receding gums.

Hard Luck For Joe

Patrolman Joe Bonzo accidentally cut his chin with a razor while shaving himself Tuesday, but though slightly disfigured he is still in the ring.

REV. W. P. CHAPMAN

Rev. Chapman had charge of the Second Baptist church, Madisonville, Cincinnati for two years where he made a number of changes. All church indebtedness was paid off, there were 75 additions to the church and he left $500 in the bank. Mrs. Chapman is a native of Portsmouth. Rev. Chapman is a student of Berea College, Berea, Ky., and also of Michigan State University. Beginning Monday night at 7:30 o'clock Rev. George L. Davis of Columbus will hold a series of meetings, being here one week and probably longer. Rev. Chapman opened the revival with two splendid sermons Sunday. Mrs. Phil Streich sent a large vase of flowers to the church on Sunday morning which were greatly appreciated by the pastors and members. A large attendance is expected each night of the revival.

FEEL BADLY ALL OVER?

When you feel badly all over but with no particular reason of your body, mind or of order, you need a tonic for the blood. You require a medicine that will benefit every part of the body and when it builds up the whole system quickly benefits.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a non-alcoholic tonic that build up the blood, making it rich and full and able to supply to the tissues of the body the nourishment they need to keep them in health. Most general debility results from thin blood. Every one of the body suffers when the blood is poor and a health-giving tonic is going to every part of the body you soon see the result in a better appetite, an improved complexion, brighter eyes, better sleep in nights and days.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a most valuable tonic and should be taken by every member of the family except infants when the general health is not what it should be. Much downright sickness has been cured by the use of a tonic or supporting medicine in times of physical depression.

THE HOME RULE AMENDMENT WILL NOT OPEN A SALOON

In any City, Village, Township or District that is Now Dry by its Own Vote.

The Home Rule Amendment

Will not repeal a single regulatory law. It will not affect the Sunday closing law, the sales to minors law, the sales to drunks law, or any other regulatory law.

This is the unqualified opinion of Attorney-General Hogan and of such other leading Ohio lawyers as Judson Harmon, Lawrence Maxwell, Wade H. Ellis, James E. Campbell, John A. McMahon, William L. Day and George B. Okoy.

The opinions of these eminent men are based on a TRUE copy of the Home Rule Amendment.

Any opinions to the contrary are based on a CARBLED copy of the Home Rule Amendment.

Below, side by side, are printed the TRUE copy of the Home Rule Amendment and the copy so FEARFULLY BUTCHERED by the opponents of Home Rule.

Public attention has been repeatedly called to the glaring mutilations here shown and there has not been a word of explanation from those guilty of the misrepresentation. The Prohibitionists have no answer—here is the proof:

THE EVIDENCE

The True Text of Proposed Constitutional Amendment Initiated by the Ohio Home Rule Association to be Voted on Nov. 3, 1914:

Article XV, Section 9a. No law shall be passed or be in effect prohibiting the sale, furnishing or giving away of intoxicating liquors, operative in a subdivision of the state upon the option of the electors thereof, or upon any other contingency, which has force within a territory larger than a municipal corporation or a township outside of municipal corporations therein. All laws in contravention of the foregoing are hereby repealed.

Nor shall any law HEREAFTER be passed prohibiting the sale, furnishing or giving away of intoxicating liquors throughout the state at large.

Note carefully the word "HEREAFTER" underscored in the true copy of the amendment. The petitions carrying this amendment were circulated in all the counties of Ohio during the entire month of July, and have been on file in the Secretary of State's office since August 4, and there can be no excuse offered by the Prohibitionists that they could not secure a true copy of the amendment.

The same people who are convicted by the evidence presented above made the unfounded claim that the license law would repeal regulatory laws—and experience has proven that the license law STRENGTHENS all regulatory laws.

Carbled Copy of Proposed Constitutional Amendment sent out by Prohibitionists to the Public and Submitted to Lawyers on Which to base Opinions:

Article XV, Section 9a—No law shall be passed or be in effect prohibiting the sale, furnishing or giving away of intoxicating liquors OPERATING (1) in a subdivision of the state upon A VOTE (2) of the electors thereof (3) or upon any other contingency (4) which has force, (5) within (6) territory larger than a municipal corporation or (7) township outside of municipal corporations therein.

(8) All laws in contravention of the foregoing are hereby repealed. Nor shall any law (9) be passed prohibiting the sale, furnishing or giving away of intoxicating liquors throughout the state at large.

- (1) "Operating" should be "operative."
- (2) Should be "the option."
- (3) Commas omitted.
- (4) Commas omitted.
- (5) Commas inserted.
- (6) "a" omitted.
- (7) "a" omitted.
- (8) This sentence should be part of the first paragraph, not of the second.
- (9) Word "HEREAFTER" omitted.

The Home Rule Amendment

Simply makes the town, the village and the township the largest units in local option elections—it repeals the obnoxious Rose County Option Law and it prevents State-Wide Prohibition except on a vote of the people—and does nothing more.

A "Yes" vote on Home Rule is a vote against County Prohibition and legislative State-Wide Prohibition.
